

HANUKKAH

8 Crazy Kilometers

DATE: Sunday, December 9, 2018
TIME: 7:00 AM to 11:00 AM
LOCATION: Panorama Vista Preserve
901 E Roberts Ln, Bakersfield, California

Runners, joggers and walkers of ALL ages are invited to the first annual Hanukkah 8 Crazy Kilometers, an 8K run organized by Temple Beth El in celebration of the 8-day Jewish holiday of Hanukkah. This family-friendly community event also features a 2K Latke Loop Fun Run.

Hanukkah, also known as the Festival of Lights, is traditionally celebrated by lighting a holiday candelabrum called a “menorah,” eating foods fried in oil like potato pancake “latkes,” playing the four-sided top or “dreidel” game, and exchanging gifts. In the spirit of holiday giving, equal portions of each participant’s registration fee will be donated to the Panorama Vista Preserve, a riparian habitat preserve and environmental education program, and Plant a Tree in Israel, a Jewish National Fund program to “help green the land of Israel.” Please visit the websites below to learn more about these nonprofit efforts.
