The Wanderings of a Rabbi

After two and a half months serving Temple Beth El, I have been blessed to meet so many of you—Current congregants, former members, community leaders—all of you in the midst of a pandemic. Most of my physical time in Bakersfield has been devoted to meeting with so many folks, including many prospective members, some of whom are now new members of the congregation. As I write this from my office on Loma Linda, I can share with great delight that in the past twenty-four hours, I was blessed with the opportunity to meet up with Pamela Elisheva, our former President and driven learner from whom I learn every time she speaks (and thank you, Pamela and Irvin, for the grapes, plums, and tomatoes!). I visited with Helen and Tom Armistead, who welcomed me into their home and who shared their longstanding relationship with Temple Beth El. Then I met with a wonderful family of four, the Baron Family, whose twelve- and ten-year old children (Lola and Lucas, respectively) are terrific, thoughtful, and charming and in need of a Jewish education; I am praying that we can provide for this charming clan’s Jewish communal needs! Today, after great effort, I had the blessing of an hour-long socially-distant introduction to Hal Friedman, whose love for the Jewish people and Temple Beth El is breathtaking and invigorating. And finally, after even GREATER effort (I had to wait for someone to let me into the gated community), I finally made contact with Ann Diamond at her home. What a special lady!

This is just a fraction of what my intensive time in Bakersfield has brought. One might not know that there is a pandemic; I feel very, very engaged in this community, which is what I am hoping for all of us. Temple Beth El is not only “where Judaism lives,” though that is true; Temple Beth El lives wherever you live—the heilige chevre (sacred community)— as your energy breathes life into our congregation.

We continue to meet by Zoom on Friday nights; by engaging congregants in leading the various prayers and ritual, I have attempted to create space for all of us to be together as one mishpachah, family. I miss the shared space of the sanctuary and pray that we will once again be able to come together in person, but in the meantime, I hope you will make the extra effort to connect with one another, whether it be over Shabbat services, Pirkei Avot “Jewish Wisdom” classes, Havdalah, or even Tuesday’s Happy Hour. We need one another in this challenging time, a time of forced isolation for many of us, with moments of loneliness for almost all of us.

So while I may wander the streets of Bakersfield in hopes of getting to know you, whether you are a member or not, traditional or not, young or old, a lifelong Jew or not—please seek to connect with one another, as there are many who could use a call or even a drop-in.

It's in the spirit of community building and keeping the sadness at bay that I look forward to the afternoon of Sunday, September 20th—the Second Day of Rosh Hashanah—when we will make a special effort to come together (with social distancing) for Tashlikh, the tradition of “casting away” our sins in the form of bread crumbs at a body of water. The High Holidays Task Force will be sharing more about how we will both come together and maintain our social distancing protocols so that all of us can be together once again. It will provide a minor nechemta (consolation) as we grapple with our existential loneliness....Hinei mah tov umah nayim shevet achim/achot gam yachad, “How good and how pleasant it is when we sit together as siblings.” Ken Y’hi Ratzon, may this be God’s will, soon!

In Anticipation of our Reunion,

Rabbi Klein

P.S. If you receive an email from me related to Temple business, it will come from tberabbiklein@gmail.com, tbe.rabbiklein@gmail.com or tbe.rabbi.klein@gmail.com. There are fake emails for rabbis all over the country being assigned by a scam “artist;” when in doubt, do not open them. Thanks!

Caring Committee

Jewish tradition prescribes that a meal be provided for the family following the burial of a family member. To that end, the Caring Committee is prepared to provide a Meal of Condolence to the families who lost a loved one. Please consider making a donation in memory of your loved one to the Caring Committee so that we may continue to provide this Mitzvah to others!

Thank you

Memorial Plaques

Temple Beth El provides a sanctuary for your sacred prayers, a social hall for special celebrations, a library to study our heritage, a school to teach our eternal values and ways to remember ones who are no longer with us. One of the traditional ways we honor those who helped shape our lives is by placing a made-to-order bronze Memorial Plaque which will be added to the walls of the Temple foyer.

President Schechter's Perspectives

Dear Chevrei,

I have some questions to ask everyone. Are we meeting your spiritual needs? Are you able to get onto the weekly Zoom services? Is there something else we can do to make your spirituality more enhanced?

I think about these questions all the time. Not meeting in person has certainly had its toll on many of you. Not having the necessary equipment to attend services. Being left lonely at home with no contact.

The answers to these are not very simple. There are so many Congregants willing to make this transition successful. So reach out! Our Caring Committee chaired by Laura Lauria is making daily efforts to reach those in need of a conversation. The Sisterhood is supporting Laura and want to reach others not being communicated with right now. Let us know by contacting the office. We are here for positive conversation.

Rabbi is reaching out through many different communicative methods. He is ready, willing and able to make conversations happen! Reach out!

Our High Holy Days will be something to write down in the history books. We will be conducting services via Zoom. We have a task force that is working diligently to make the services rewarding, inclusive, and spiritual. Information will be forth coming.

We have many new faces on our Zoom services each week. We also have welcomed new Congregants to Temple Beth El. Please extend a hearty welcome to Leah Banks, David & Lillian Brust, Beth Freedman, Michael, Leora, Zachary & Sidney Freedman, Lindsey Pearson, Shulamit Shroder & Joshua Canepa, and Sarah Weiss. Welcome to each and everyone of you. We look forward for a very long and fruitful relationship!

Yasher Koach to Rabbi Klein and all the Congregants of Temple Beth El for all you do to keep Us thriving!

"More than the Jewish people have kept Shabbat, Shabbat has kept the Jewish people!"

Temple Beth El where Judaism lives!

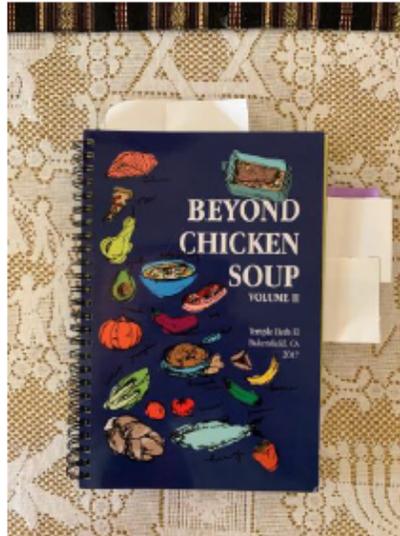

Shalom,

Ilene Schechter

COOKING CLASSES via ZOOM

Featuring Cooking From:

A once a month cooking class at 1 pm on a Sunday through a Zoom meeting room, featuring Legacy recipes from the cookbook BEYOND CHICKEN SOUP VOL II, and an additional recipe of the cook's choice.

Class Schedule (so far) :

On August 2, 2020, Reb Cantor Lisa Lipco Levine Cooks Two Dishes from Shirley Lipco – Shirley Lipco's Cole Slaw (p.29) and Cold Basque Beans (Bakersfield Legacy Dish, for sure). Lisa will be using cabbages from her own garden in Maryland and teaching us how to alter the recipe to make it less sugar-y. She will also read a poem called "Passover Table" from her new book "Heart of Light", and speaks to keeping the tradition alive through cooking.

September 6, 2020, Len Epstein will teach us his Challah recipe and show us how to braid a round Challah for Rosh Hashanah "sorta using Norma Schwartz' Challah Recipe." (P. 149) but he is all about a "little bisl of this, a little bisl of that,..." which Norma would appreciate.

September 13, Avital Anders will present a class entitled "Shakshouka in the Sukkah". Avital will show us how to do Shakshouka for the Sukkah, but she will also do Jaffa Chicken (p. 63) which would make a great Rosh Hashanah dish (Vegan version could be tried with a head of cabbage, perhaps?)

TO PARTICIPATE: Send us an RSVP via email to: wotbesisterhood@gmail.com by August 2 at noon. We will send you a Zoom link and the ingredient list (if you want to cook along while the cook shows us how.) Questions? wotbesisterhood@gmail.com

Temple Beth El Torah Learning Center Religious School will start virtually for the 5780-5781 year due to the pandemic. The first date for Religious school will be Sunday, September 13, 2020 over Zoom. Your religious school teachers Irene Christianson, Julia Brennen, Tim Fromm, Christopher Jacobson, Stacy Davis with the addition of Rabbi Jonathan Klein are busy planning for the upcoming school year.

We are looking at purchasing new materials geared for online learning. There will be no fee for classes if your family is a member in good standing at Temple Beth El. There will be a minimal fee to cover the cost of books to go home with your child.

Please email me at tbetorahlearningcenter@gmail.com or call me at 661-319-4069 to pre-register your child/children for religious school. I need to know how many students to plan for and how many new books to order. Please look for more information in September Shofar.

Sincerely,
Stacy Davis
Principal

HANUKKAH 8 Krazy Kilometers

Organized by Temple Beth El of Bakersfield, California

I wanted to let you know that the 2020 Hanukkah 8 Krazy Kilometers and 2K Latke Loop Fun Run are going to be virtual races this year due to the current pandemic. You'll be able to run an 8K or 2K distance anywhere and anytime during the eight days of Hanukkah

(Thursday, December 10 – Friday, December 18). Plus, you'll have the option to complete your run at the Panorama Vista Preserve, as both courses will be marked. In addition, awards will be given to the top finishers who run the 8K course at the Preserve. With your registration, you'll receive a race shirt, finisher medal, swag bag, and raffle ticket. Online registration and more information about our virtual races will be available on our website (<https://www.8krazykilometers.org/>) after August 1, 2020.

If you would like to help out with year's Hanukkah 8 Krazy Kilometers and 2k Latke Loop, please consider donating a gift card as a raffle prize or becoming a race sponsor. If you would like to volunteer to help with the race, please contact Stacy Davis for more information at 661-319-4069 (i.e.: handing out race materials).

Currently businesses are going through difficult times due to Covid-19 protocols. Please consider shopping with businesses that have supported our prior races. (Please see the list below)
