LETTER FROM THE RABBI

Midrash One Nation to Another by Rabbi Yael Vurgan

Yael said: All my days, I grieved over this verse:

And God said to her, two nations are in your belly, and two peoples will go their separate ways from your bowels, and one people another will overpower, and the elder will serve the younger. (Genesis 25, 23)

And I asked: How did Rebecca hear this harsh prophecy while Isaiah heard: no nation will take up a sword against another (Isaiah 2,4)?

And Abraham had already said to Lot: Let there not be conflict between me and you...for we are brethren. (Genesis 13, 8)

And if you will say 'all brothers hate one another,' haven't we found that in every generation, after they hated, they came together and reconciled with one another? Of the sons of Abraham, it is said: And they buried him, Isaac and Ishmael, his sons (Genesis 25, 9)

And of the sons of Isaac, it is said: And Esau ran towards him and hugged him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept (Genesis 33, 4).

And of the sons of Jacob, it is said: And now, be not sad, or angry with yourselves over having sold me, because it was to preserve life that God sent me here before you. (Genesis 45, 5)

Until there came a generation that hated no more. And who are these? Moses and Aaron, of whom it is said: How good and pleasing it is when siblings dwell together (Psalms 133. 1).

And I heard most of the people and the leaders saying: we will live by the sword forever, and I grieved and wept even more, that they prefer that bad prophecy that Rebecca heard over the good one.

Until a poem came into my hands:

"And I shall keep faith in the future,

Though the day be yet far away

Surely it will come - when nations

Will share blessing and peace." (Shaul Tchernikhovsky, "I Believe" Odessa, 1892)

I rejoiced a great joy that Tchernikhovsky had come and turned the first prophecy upside down, and made it like the second, better one. And I too, chose to believe in it, with all my heart and all my might.

And I would go about in the city and call out: The two nations can, they can, live on this land in peace, share its blessings and be a blessing to one another!

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Shalom Friends who are Family,

Spring, with all its blessings and holidays, is upon us. Passover reminds us that all over the world, including here in the US, people yearn for freedom. Our captors may be vicious like the Hamas terrorists still holding 59 Israelis in Gaza, or metaphorically the panopticons that control our daily lives. Nature experiences rebirth and growth; may we also find growth, freedom and strive to the light.

I recently returned from Ecuador and the Galapagos, where all days are 12 hours of light and 12 hours of night. Our globe is home to remarkable phenomena, creatures, and humans. Experiencing joy and pain are integral to humanity. While snorkeling and hiking with people to whom I found it easy to connect, it was effortless to simply be happy. I was delighted to be in such a beautiful environment. The place where I also frequently experience joy and connection is with you, our community. Greeting friends on Friday nights, including on Zoom, at Sunday's Religious School, or the occasional Shabbat morning service, has been a reliable source of smiles and good energy. I truly hope that you will join us, in person if possible, so you too can benefit from this quintessential human need of connection, sprinkled with the delights of Torah and our traditions. These are the things that give life a spark of joy and meanings.

A communal Shabbat dinner to celebrate Israel's Independence Day will take place on Friday, May 2, co-sponsored by the Jewish National Fund. We are very excited to have the opportunity to break bread together and affirm our connection to the land of Israel. Please RSVP as soon as possible so we can properly plan. All sorts of Shabbat treats are in store! Use this link to sign up:

Speaking of Israel, voting in the World Zionist Congress elections is taking place right now. Over a billion dollars (!) of funding for the state of Israel will be distributed according to how Jews worldwide vote. Every Jewish person over the age of 18 who resides in the diaspora and did not vote in Israeli elections is eligible to vote. By voting "VOTE REFORM" (Slate #3), we direct moneys toward projects that reflect our values and priorities within the land of Israel, including religious freedom and democratic ideals. There is a $5 administrative fee to support the voting process.

You can use this link to vote:

<https://azm.castiron.votem.net/election/037548cb-4cbb-4a94-aa9a-8aef017d4ddf>

The annual Lag BaOmer picnic and congregational meeting will take place on May 18th. This has been a fun, joyful event, an important opportunity to discuss our congregation's plans for the future and vote for the board of directors. Please plan to attend! Esther Brandon and the nominating committee are starting to assemble the slate of candidates. If you have not been contacted and are interested in serving, please contact her, rabbi, or myself.

Calendar of events and celebrations:

World Zionist Congress voting – Now through May 4

Passover – April 12 through the 20th

Counting of the Omer – Starts on Sunday, April 13th, through Shavuot, June 1st, at nightfall

Yom HaShoah – April 24th

Israeli Independence Day – May 1st, we will celebrate with a congregational dinner on Friday, May 2nd

Lag BaOmer – May 15th, we will celebrate Sunday May 18th

Bar Mitzvah of Asher Delijani – Saturday, May 31

Shavuot – Sunday, June 1st

There is always a reason for celebration,

WORLD ZIONIST CONGRESS 2025

US WZC elections will take place March 10 – May 4, 2025.

Between March 10 and May 4, 2025, American Jews can vote for their vision of the Jewish people in Israel and around the world.

Make sure your point of view is represented in the next World Zionist Congress. By voting you will be able to choose one of the many slates representing diverse political beliefs, religious denominations and cultural traditions. The 152 delegates elected from the United States will join hundreds from Israel and around the world at the 39th World Zionist Congress in October 2025, the international “parliament of the Jewish people”, to make decisions and set policies regarding key institutions that support global Jewish life and which allocate over $1 billion annually to support Israel and world Jewry (including the World Zionist Organization, Jewish National Fund and the Jewish Agency for Israel). With more slates and candidates than ever before, American Jews have a rare opportunity to make a direct impact on the future direction of Israel and diaspora affairs.
