LETTER FROM THE RABBI

Feedback Regarding Service Length: A Tircha d'Tzibura (Hardship Upon the Community)

Dear Esteemed TBE Members,

For this month's Shofar article, I would like to simply state that I continue to receive feedback from congregants who have been frustrated with the length of services at our sweet synagogue. Many of those sharing their feelings have not been to synagogue services in a while and may be unaware that I have made efforts to shorten service length, to respond to the concerns and to recognize that several of you have felt that it is a tircha d'Tzibura—a strain on the community, that services have gone longer than desired. This came to a head during Rosh Hashanah services, but the reality is that once a service feels long to a congregant, they believe that it will be immutably long forever afterward.

I want to change this. I want you to attend our Shabbat and Days of Awe services. I miss you!

Here is my service length aspiration:

I will try to shorten adult Friday Night Services from 1 ½ to 1 ¾ hours to 1 ¼ to 1 ½ hours.

Rosh Hashanah services will be shortened, but not sure just yet because this book is still new for us...probably less reader parts, shorter sermon, and less song.

Yom Kippur services may remain the same, as the feedback I have received was almost entirely regarding Rosh Hashanah, and people are fasting, anyway.

There are several explanations for why there has been a challenge for us on this point, but what matters more than this is the feeling you carry, and I want to remedy any feelings you may carry about service length. First, my background as a Reform Jew led me to Reform synagogues such as Stephen S. Wise Temple, where services are longer than in the history (it seems) of Temple Beth El; I assumed that this is standard fare for Reform synagogues, especially on Rosh Hashanah. Second, while I have years of experience as a rabbi, most of my spaces have been pluralistic spaces such as Hillel, where all the denominations are present and students are accustomed to being surrounded by traditional forms. Third, as a congregational rabbi, I was not accustomed to reading Torah on Friday nights (since my arrival, though, we only read Torah on Friday nights once or twice a month due to other service styles that do not include a Torah service), and of course that adds significant time to the Friday night experience. Fourth, we recently changed Machzors (Rosh Hashanah/Yom Kippur prayer books) from the single volume Gates of Repentance to the much more elaborate two-volume Mishkan HaNefesh, and this transition has been a learning experience that requires simplification. Fifth but less significantly, there is a marked historical difference in service length between Christian and Jewish services; those raised in churches may have assumptions that simply are different. And finally, guilty as charged—this Rabbi likes to talk! I hope you know that it is out of passion for our traditions, and I so dearly want to share this Torah with you! Still...

Nevertheless, I have received feedback, and I hope you feel my humility. Kibalti v'Shamati—I have received, and I have heard. I will endeavor to shorten our worship services so that you can feel that our services speak more directly to you.

There will be times of disappointment, but please know that I am trying!

I love Temple Beth El, and more specifically, I love our Kehillah K'doshah (Sacred Community)—YOU!—with our wonderful cast of fantastic characters and lots of stories from over 77 years of Jewish pride. I recently found in my office the certificate that essentially declares our “charter” with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, from 1947! We have a wonderful community, and more than my needs, I am here to serve you.

As we close out the school year and ready ourselves for summer, I wish you all a wonderful month of May!

L'shalom,

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Shalom Friends who are Family,

We have a full May/June calendar. Really, it is the IYAR/SIVAN calendar that is jam packed with events! Israeli Independence Day – YOM HaATZMAUT – is celebrated on May 1st. We will mark it with a congregational dinner and a Kabbalat Shabbat starting at 6 PM, Friday, May 2nd. Jewish National Fund is sponsoring the dinner and their representative, Dov Gordon, will spend the evening with us. If you want to learn more about JNF, he will be here all weekend and is very interested in getting to know our community. This is a link to his calendar -

<https://calendly.com/dovgordonjnf/bakersfield> You are encouraged to schedule some time with him.

We will have a special Mother's Day Shabbat on May 9th at 6 PM. On Saturday, May 10th, B'nai Jacob Shabbat Torah Service returns at 9:30 AM. Sunday, May 18th, will be our annual Lag BaOmer picnic and congregational meeting. This has been a fun, joyful event, an important opportunity to discuss our congregation's plans for the future and vote for a new board of directors. Please plan to attend! The picnic will start at noon and the meeting will take place at 1:30. Ballots and reports have been mailed and emailed. If for some reason, you did not receive the packet, please let me know so I can get you the information.

Voting in the World Zionist Congress elections is still open, but only until May 4th. Over a billion dollars (!) of funding for the state of Israel will be distributed according to how Jews worldwide vote. Every Jewish person over the age of 18 who resides in the diaspora and did not vote in Israeli elections is eligible to vote. By voting "VOTE REFORM" (Slate #3), we direct moneys toward projects that reflect our values and priorities within the land of Israel, including religious freedom and democratic ideals. There is a $5 administrative fee to support the voting process. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make your voice heard. Use this link to vote: <https://azm.castiron.votem.net/election/037548cb-4cbb-4a94-aa9a-8aef017d4ddf>

Saturday, May 30th, brings us the opportunity to share the Simchah of Asher Delijani as he becomes a Bar Mitzvah. Services will be at 9:30, followed by a luncheon. I for one, can't wait to celebrate!

Sunday, June 1st, will be the last day of religious school. We will listen to project presentations of our oldest students who have been studying American Jewish Heroes with the thoughtful guidance of Jeannette Delijani. A celebratory day it will be.

Shavuot, the Festival of Weeks, commemorating the giving of The Torah on Mount Sinai, will be at 6 PM on Sunday, June 1st.

There is always a reason for celebration,

WORLD ZIONIST CONGRESS 2025

US WZC elections will take place March 10 – May 4, 2025.

Once every five years, we have a Jewish civic duty – to Israel and to our people – to cast our vote and make our voices heard in the World Zionist Congress (WZC) election. In a few short weeks, on March 10, voting will open for the 2025 WZC and you can vote for our Vote Reform slate.

This is your chance to stand up for democracy, security, and peace in Israel. Our Vote Reform slate will make the safe return of all the hostages their number one priority. They will fight to make sure that your children and your children's children are recognized as Jewish in Israel – a right that our ultra-orthodox opponents in this election are trying to take away.

Please commit here today to casting your ballot for Vote Reform from March 10 through May 4 and sign up for a reminder to vote when the voting period opens.
